

Below is the proposed itinerary for the trip. As is true on any adventure travel trip, plans for any specific day may be modified due to weather considerations, unforeseen circumstances, new opportunities, and group interests.

DAY 1

Arrival day, short walking tour of Athens, Welcome dinner

Our first group meeting will be at 5:30PM at our first night’s hotel in Athens. That evening we’ll meet with our local guide for an orientation walk of Athens and then share a welcome dinner in a traditional Greek taverna in Plaka, the old part of Athens, overlooking the Acropolis.

- Included Meals: Dinner
- Accommodations: Hotel in Athens
- Daily Activities: Orientation walk of Athens

DAY 2

Half day sight seeing tour of Athens, flight to Paros

After breakfast, a half day sightseeing tour of the Acropolis with a professional guide will introduce us to one of the crowning glories of Greek culture. At the top we learn all about the history of the glorious monuments of the Acropolis (the Parthenon, Erechtheion, Propylaia, and Nike Temple) as well as the surrounding monuments (the Dionysus sanctuary, Pnyx Hill, Odeon of Herodes Atticus, and the Ancient Agora). We will spend some extra time at the Parthenon, the finest sanctuary of ancient Athens, originally dedicated to its patron the goddess Athena. We will then continue our tour with a visit to the New Acropolis Museum. The walk is 10 minutes along a beautiful pedestrian area that was created around the Hill of the Acropolis, as a way to join most of the Archaeological Sites of Athens together. Seeing the museum after our visit to the Acropolis really helps "put together" the archaeological site with the findings displayed in the various exhibition areas.

After lunch, we transfer to the Athens airport in order to catch our 40-minute flight to the beautiful island of Paros, our first island. Along the way, if time allows, we’ll stop for photos at the Panathenaic Stadium, the stadium where the first Olympic Games were held in 1896, and the Parliament. Upon arrival in Paros we transfer to our hotel and enjoy our first island dinner.

- Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
- Accommodations: Hotel in Naousa
- Daily Activities: Walking/Sightseeing
- Travel: Airplane (Athens to Paros)

DAY 3

Today, we will begin with a visit to Lefkes village (the old capital of Paros) with its amazing marble church and its (paved) portion of the Byzantine trail with magnificent views to the Aegean Sea and the island of Naxos. Along the way, we’ll see the impact of a wildfire that burned part of this area in 2021. We will stop for refreshments in the village of Prodromos and then hike towards the cultural village of Marpissa. Here, we will enjoy a traditional Parian lunch and have the opportunity to visit some of the shops operated by local women producing local products.

Late afternoon will find us learning some of the secrets of delicious Greek cooking as we participate in a Greek cooking class. We'll learn how to make several authentic Greek dishes, and once the food is cooked, we will enjoy our own typical Greek meal.

DAY 4

Ferry to Naxos, hike to Ano Potamia

This morning we'll take the ferry to the island of Naxos. Naxos is the largest of the Islands, known for its natural beauty and also its "kouros". Remnants of ancient Greece, kouros are full-sized statues of male youth which may or may not be related to the god Apollo.

After lunch, our hike literally starts in the backyard of a Greek family, at the site of Kouros of Melanes statue. Our hike along an old footpath gradually descends to the picturesque village of Ano Potamia. We'll pass by a rural stone church and gaze up at the Apano Kastro (Upper Castle). Built in a very strategic position, it commands expansive views of Naxos town and port and surrounding towns. Our hike finishes with an easy walk to the village of Halki and if time allows, a visit to a small distillery that produces Kitron, the local specialty liquor.

- Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
- Accommodations: Hotel in Naxos
- Daily Activities: Hiking (~4.5 miles)

DAY 5

Climb Mt Zeus, hike to Filoti, free afternoon

We start today with a drive to the little chapel at Santa Marina, where we start our hike to the summit of Mount Zeus. Known as Zas in Greek, the peak is the highest point in the Cyclades with incredible panoramic views from the summit. The ascent and descent take about 3.5 - 5 hours, including ample time for lunch on the trail, pictures and stories about Zeus' childhood home.

After returning to our hotel, we'll have the rest of the afternoon free for swimming or visiting the old part of Naxos town. If you prefer not to hike, spending the day relaxing and wandering through town or swimming are excellent options. Dinner is on our own tonight and our Greek guide can suggest a favorite, or you can choose one of the many quaint taverns as you wander the narrow streets of the town.

Santorini, probably the best known of the Cyclades, was shaped by a huge volcanic eruption in 2000 B.C. that destroyed the town in the central part of the island and left a huge crater behind. Upon arrival we will visit Acrotiri, a Bronze Age Minoan settlement also called the "Greek Pompeii". Dinner tonight will feature a spectacular sunset over the volcano, islands and the sea while sampling some of the local foods of Santorini.

There may be some free time in the afternoon to visit one of its famous wineries or just wander in its picturesque alleys and do some shopping.

Tonight, we'll all celebrate our island-hopping tour and our new understanding of Greek life at our final meal together with wonderful food. Note: this is our last dinner all together.
